COFFEE CHATS

Held in private homes during the week before each concert, these casual, musical, and informative social events give people from all walks of life an opportunity to meet our composers, orchestral players, soloists and conductor.

If you are interested in gaining further insight into how and why composers and performers create music, please call the Orchestra's Office at 922-5675 for dates and locations of these free events.

Please note that should an artist be unable to appear, The Esprit Orchestra reserves the right to substitute.

All programmes are subject to change without notice.

MUSIC DIRECTOR'S MESSAGE

In this our seventh season, we are pleased to continue with the presentation of outstanding Canadian compositions in an international context.

We have increased the number of superb Canadian soloists appearing in our concerts and have taken steps to expand our education and "coffee chat" programmes. A highlight of the season will be the recording of Esprit's first compact disc.

In my role as Music Director, programming each season is always a pleasurable challenge for me to combine pieces, concerts and musicians in a way that entertains, stimulates and enlightens our audience. I hope you will join us for this season's exceptional line up of composers and performers and help create the excitement that has always been part of Esprit's concerts.

Sincerely,

Alex Pauk
